

Order of Worship

“Resurrection is not [only] a single event, but a loosening of God’s power and light into the earth and into history that continues to alter all things, infusing them with the grace and power of God’s own holiness. It is as though a door was opened, and what poured out will never be stopped, and the door cannot be closed.”

- Megan McKenna

Welcome & Time of Greeting Anne Jernberg

Welcome to worship at Calvary! We are glad you are here.

Guests are invited to complete a visitor card and place it in the offering plate later in the service. Cards are located in the pew racks.

If this is your first time worshipping with us, please raise your hand when we stand to greet one another so that we may offer you a gift—a loaf of bread, which reminds us all that Jesus is the “bread of life” that nourishes our life in community together.

and those who are mourning the death of a loved one.

People: We welcome your resurrection for it is life-changing, life-giving and life-sustaining.

Leader: Lord, may your resurrection give hope to those who are in times of transition,

life-changing, life-giving and life-sustaining.

Leader: Lord, may your resurrection give joy and peace to those who seek fullness of heart, inspiration of mind, health of body,

About Today's Worship

The paraments are white today for the celebration of Easter. Throughout the Lenten season, we extinguished candles as we awaited the crucifixion of Jesus on Good Friday. On the third day after his death, we process in with the Christ Candle, a symbol of the Risen Lord of Easter and the living presence of Christ among us and within us today.

The singing of Handel's Hallelujah from Messiah at the conclusion of worship on Easter has been a Calvary tradition for many years. All who wish to sing in the chorus are invited to the front of the sanctuary during the final hymn to join this closing celebration of Easter worship.

Calvary's mission is to be a Christ-like community that experiences and shares God's love.

Calvary welcomes and affirms all people as children of God from every cultural and religious background, sexual orientation, family composition, physical and mental ability, economic means, race, age and gender.
