

A Service of Worship to the Glory of God and for the Installation of the Reverend Anne M. Jernberg as Senior Pastor

April 21, 2013 – 10:30 a.m.

Calvary Baptist Church of Denver

+ Please rise in body or in spirit

In the spirit of worship, please silence all electronic devices.

Order of Worship

*The question should not be “What would Jesus do?
but rather, more dangerously, “What would Jesus have me do?”*

*The onus is not on Jesus but on us, for Jesus did not come to ask semi-divine human beings to do impossible things.
He came to ask human beings to live up to their full humanity;
he wants us to live in the full implication of our human gifts,
and that is far more demanding...*

We are, as Paul reminds us in 1 Corinthians, “servants of Christ” and “stewards of the mysteries of God.”

- The Reverend Professor Peter J. Gomes (1942-2011)
Plummer Professor of Christian Morals at Harvard Divinity School and The Pusey Minister at The Memorial Church, Harvard University, 1970-2011

Scriptures of Purpose and Call

David Beaty

Matthew 28:16-20

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

Romans 12:4-8

For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Affirmation of Purpose

+Call to Worship

Stephan Barry & Nathan Goodman

from Psalm 121, Psalm 100, Psalm 118

Leader 1: We lift up our eyes to the hills - from where will our help come?

People: Our help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Leader 2: The Lord is our keeper; the shade at our right hand.

People: The Lord will keep our going out and our coming in from this time on and forevermore.

Leaders: So let us make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth!

People: Let us worship the Lord with gladness and with singing.

Leader 1: Know that the Lord is God.

People: God made us. We are God's people; sheep in God's pasture.

Leader 2: Let us enter these gates with thanksgiving, and these courts with praise.

People: Give thanks to the Lord, and bless God's holy name!

Leaders: For the Lord is good.

People: The Lord's steadfast love endures forever with faithfulness to all generations.

All: This is the day that the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it!

+Hymn

Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee

+Scripture on Life in Community

Jim Comstock

Colossians 4:12-17

Leader: As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body.

People: And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.

All: And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

+Gospel Lesson

Corry Doty

Luke 10:25-28

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself." And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

To Love Our God

M. Hayes/J. Parker

AVE & Calvary Choir

Where does the wind come from? Where does it go?
Blowing north and south, how does it know?

To love our God,
the reason we live.
To love our God,
the highest call.

The rain flows gently to the sea, yet the sea is full.
How can these things be?
How can these things be?
How can they be?

Nothing satisfies our soul,
gives life meaning, makes us whole.
For this purpose we were made:

Humanity works hard to make a name;
toiling in the sun yet nothing gained.
We all return to dust from whence we came.
All is empty. All is vain.

to love our God,
to love our God.
The reason that we live
is to love our God.

+Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God all creatures here below;
Praise God for all that love has done;
Creator, Christ, and Spirit, One. Amen.

Litany of Quotations on Faith, Leadership, Life, & Ministry

Brenda Goodman & Michelle Honeycutt

The following are quotes to give us cause to pause and consider how sacred they are, how sacred life is, how sacred we are, and how sacred the work of ministry is...

“We come together in Christian community not because we must, but because we may... not because we are less than but because we are loved more...not because we are people plagued by sin, but because we are humans chased by grace.”

– Brian Henderson

“No matter what: love people, love people, love people.”

– Albert Paul Brinson

“It may be that when we no longer know what to do, we have come to our real work and when we no longer know which way to go, we have begun our real journey.”

– Wendell Berry

“Know and believe in yourself, and what others think won't disturb you.”

– a fortune cookie quote

“There are subterranean parts of our being we must share with others.”

– anonymous

“Burn out...results from trying to give what I do not possess--the ultimate in giving too little. Burn out is a state of emptiness, to be sure, but it does not result from giving all I have: it merely reveals the nothingness from which I was trying to give in the first place.”

– Parker Palmer

“One dwells with the divine by being faithful to one's nature.”

– Parker Palmer

“God loves us so much that God decided it is not worth being God without us.”

– Peter J. Gomes, Anne Jernberg

“As we are liberated from our fears, we allow our light to shine and the light of others too.”

– Anne Jernberg

“Trust in the slow work of God...rest in the slow work of God.”

– Dennis Johnson

“It is for us to remember that those to whom we look in the past were in fact looking ahead.”

– Peter J. Gomes

“We know that our demons are not easily dismissed, that we yearn for more than simply the ability to get through the day. We would like to make a life, not just a living...”

– Peter J. Gomes

“When the disciples asked, "Lord, teach us to pray," their request had nothing to do with learning some new revolutionary technique. Technique wasn't their problem, confident faith was.”

– Peter Marty

“Jesus' life is a life to be modeled more than it is to be worshiped.”

– Phillip Gulley

“The good news of God in Christ is this: You have everything you need to be human.”

– Barbara Brown Taylor

“I have learned to prize holy ignorance more highly than religious certainty and to seek companions who have arrived at the same [or similar] places.”

– Barbara Brown Taylor

“And about churches...what if people were invited to come to tell what they already know of God instead of what they are supposed to believe...what if the Church's job was to move people out the door instead of keeping them in?”

– Barbara Brown Taylor

“The task of religion is to help us live creatively, peacefully, and even joyously with realities for which there are no easy explanations.”

– Karen Armstrong

“God will understand. If God can not understand, God is not God.”

New Testament Lesson

Damon Scalfaro

1 Corinthians 3:5-11

The Message

Who do you think Paul is, anyway? Or Apollos, for that matter? Servants, both of us — servants who waited on you as you gradually learned to entrust your lives to our mutual Master. We each carried out our servant assignment. I planted the seed, Apollos watered the plants, but God made you grow. It's not the one who plants or the one who waters who is at the center of this process but God, who makes things grow. Planting and watering are menial servant jobs at minimum wages. What makes them worth doing is the God we are serving. You happen to be God's field in which we are working.

Or, to put it another way, you are God's house. Using the gift God gave me as a good architect, I designed blueprints; Apollos is putting up the walls. Let each carpenter who comes on the job take care to build on the foundation! Remember, there is only one foundation, the one already laid: Jesus Christ.

Bless The Space Between Us

Mary Hulst

Scripture of Prayer & Presence

Warren Risch

Philippians 4:4-9

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Scriptures of Celebration & Challenge

Lori Grohskopf

Exodus 12:14

This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

Proverbs 24:13-14

My child, eat honey, for it is good, and the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste. Know that wisdom is such to your soul; if you find it, you will find a future, and your hope will not be cut off.

Micah 6:8

He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Spiritual Element

Covenant of Installation

Lay Leadership, Staff, & Congregation

To the candidate:

Lori Grohskopf: Anne Jernberg has been called by both God and God's people to be the Senior Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church of Denver.

Anne, do you acknowledge this call and do you assume this responsibility, pledging yourself to the ministry of the Gospel of Jesus Christ at Calvary and in our community?

Anne Jernberg: I do, calling upon God for courage and wisdom, calling upon Christ for guidance and patience, and calling upon the Spirit for peace and encouragement.

Todd Clough: Anne, do you dedicate yourself to being a bold preacher and creative teacher of the Word of God; to leading this congregation with vision in the areas of worship, service, mission, and stewardship; to being a faithful and comforting pastor to people in mental, spiritual, physical, financial, or emotional need; to nurturing and encouraging the spiritual formation of children, youth, and adults of all ages and life circumstances; and to equipping and empowering God's people for service through their unique ministries in the world?

Anne Jernberg: I do so dedicate myself, with the gift of God's grace, with the companionship of Christ and this church, and through listening to and learning from God's Spirit, God's Word, and God's people.

Kevin Jonell: Anne, as you serve this congregation as Senior Pastor, do you dedicate yourself to your own self-care and renewal, creating time for Sabbath; for rest; for reading, study and writing; for play; for physical exercise; for vacations; for emotional and mental support; for spiritual direction; for retreats; for nurturing relationships beyond this church community, for creating connections with other clergy and colleagues; and for quality time with friends and family?

Anne Jernberg: I do so dedicate myself, seeking God's help and this congregation's support and encouragement.

Andrew Daugherty, Joe Greemore, Kevin Padworski, Warren Risch & Mary Hulst:

Anne, we who share in professional and pastoral ministry here at Calvary promise to support you with our labors and our prayers, exercising genuine mutuality, caring, and respect.

Will you support us and pray for us in our ministries, and will you exercise genuine mutuality, caring, and respect for our staff and for the lay leadership of this church?

Anne Jernberg: I will pray for each of you, and support, encourage, and respect you as we collectively serve Christ and the people of Calvary together.

To the congregation:

Diane Newcom: We, who are gathered today in worship, share in this installation. As a symbol of your support of our Senior Pastor, Anne Jernberg, your continuing service through the church, and your joy in this calling, will you please stand in body or in spirit?

The congregation stands in body or in spirit.

Calvary friends and family, do you now joyfully and prayerfully receive The Reverend Anne M. Jernberg as Senior Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church of Denver and, before God and in the presence of one another, pledge your service, your respect, and your prayerful support to Anne?

+Congregation: We do so receive Anne as Senior Pastor.
We ask for God's blessing and guidance as together we seek to build God's kingdom in and through this church.
We pledge our love and faithfulness, our prayers and presence, and our time, abilities, and resources to the end that God's will may be served in and through Calvary Baptist Church of Denver, this community, and throughout the world.

All: Thanks be to God!

~ please join hands with the people beside you ~

Blest Be the Tie That Binds

Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love;
the fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.

Installation Prayer

Andrew Daugherty

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture of Blessing

Jackie Howard

Ephesians 3:16-21

Leader: I pray that, according to the riches of God's glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

People: Now to God who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to God be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

+Hymn of Response

Christ, You Call Us All to Service

As we sing, you are invited to respond to the Spirit's leading.

You may come forward to make public your profession of faith in Christ, to request baptism, to share that you would like to become a member of this church family, to receive prayer or to pray, to share how God is leading you to answer a call to ministry, or to share any way that God is at work in your life.

A pastor will welcome you as you come forward.

Benediction

You are invited to Fellowship Hall for a reception hosted by the Pastoral Search Committee celebrating the Installation of Anne as Senior Pastor.

Service Notes

Webcast ministry: Today's worship service is recorded with video cameras for Internet broadcasting at www.calvarydenver.org.

Childcare is available in the nursery for children up to age 5.

Hearing enhancement devices are available from the ushers in the narthex.

The paraments are red today symbolizing a celebration in the life of our church community. Red is the color for the Holy Spirit, usually used on Pentecost or on any celebration day in the life of the local church. As Calvary celebrates the installation of a new Senior Pastor, we celebrate that the living Spirit of God is at work within each one of us and among all of us.

The Christ Candle remains lit for the duration of the Easter Season as we celebrate the presence of the resurrected Christ in our midst.

The flowers on the chancel are in loving memory of Marguerite "Marge" Charlene Connole (1916 – 2013).

The Scripture Readings are all from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, unless otherwise indicated.

Following the Word for God's Children, children may return to their seats or go to Creative Time in Rooms 356 & 360.

Calvary Choir, under the direction of Kevin Padworski and accompanied by Austina Scollin, is an SAB ensemble open to all adults.

AVE, under the direction of Kevin Padworski and accompanied by Austina Scollin, is an auditioned SATB ensemble for adults.

Spiritual Element, under the direction of Emily Crile and accompanied by Lucie Cardwell, is Calvary's choir for youth in grades 6-12.

Today's worship musicians include Rebecca Bennett and Jordan Grohskopf, vocals; Joshua Brewer, violin; Tiffany Cox, viola; Carolyn Whitlow, cello; Daniel Rule, bass; Greg Kitto, percussion; Rachel Padworski, flute; Karen Stanley, bassoon; Le Fox, Brenda Goodman, Kelly Scollin, trumpets; John Kimley, horn; and John Pipe, trombone.

The Pastoral Search Committee met during the fall of 2012 and presented Anne as Calvary's candidate for Senior Pastor in December. Anne was voted on by the congregation on January 6, 2013 to become the Senior Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church of Denver. The search committee consisted of: Todd Clough, chair; David Beaty, Jim Comstock, Shannon Goodrich, Michelle Honeycutt, Bill Mills, Cindy Ponikvar, Earlene Ramay, Karen Stanley, and Hannah Wessling.
